

Snapsheet Expands Partnership with Mutual of Enumclaw for Claimant and Vendor Payments

Integration of Snapsheet Payments platform delivers fast, convenient digital disbursements process

Chicago, IL – May 5, 2020 – Snapsheet, a pioneer in virtual claims management processing technology, today announced a newly expanded partnership with Mutual of Enumclaw. The Washington-based insurance company, which has leveraged Snapsheet's virtual appraisal capabilities since 2017, is extending its digital offering to include electronic payments for added convenience and efficiency.

Snapsheet Payments is a cloud-native, API-driven payments platform that allows partners to leverage seamless scalability, automated tools and insurance-specific workflows to deliver an optimal payments experience. This new capability offers Mutual of Enumclaw members and vendors the option to receive funds faster through multiple digital payment options through Snapsheet's partnership with Keybank. The integration of the Payments platform into Mutual of Enumclaw's claim system, Guidewire ClaimCenter, allows for increased electronic workflows for claimant, multi-party, and vendor payments while also achieving greater consistency and transparency within the organization.

"For more than 120 years, we've been committed to the highest level of service for our members and vendors," said Jeff Obermeyer, Director of Strategic Initiatives at Mutual of Enumclaw. "Snapsheet Payments has allowed us to continue delivering on that promise in today's modern world, which has resulted in enhanced engagement and greater satisfaction."

Payments is one of the modules Snapsheet provides within its suite of claims management tools – from omnichannel engagement tools to eFNOL to direct deposit of payments to customers and vendors – all designed to digitize each step of the claims process.

"As the insurance industry heads toward a digital transformation, we're working alongside our partners to address each point of friction and deliver faster, better claims experiences for all parties involved," said Brad Weisberg, CEO and co-founder of Snapsheet. "We're thrilled to continue supporting Mutual of Enumclaw in their commitment to offering the choice and convenience their members and vendors expect in the payment process."
